Top 20 Reasons to do the 20th Annual Indianapolis Marathon & Half Marathon

Reason #1: A Spectacularly Beautiful Course During the Height of Autumn

"Running along the paved roads through the woods of Fort Harrison State Park, with leaves gently falling and the sun peeking through the trees, it was surreal!"
- race participant

The natural beauty of the course is one of the main attractions of the Indianapolis Marathon & Half Marathon which starts and ends on the beautiful and historic Fort Harrison Parade Grounds. The course runs along the Fall Creek Greenway on a tree-lined, creek-side route winding along this corridor parkway and avoids busy roads, traffic, and noise to give the runners a relaxing and personal experience. The course has been called "amazing" and "peaceful."
