

The Indianapolis Marathon has been chosen by Runner's World Magazine as a Top 10 Marathon to do for 2015!

If you've run the Indianapolis Marathon, you've been changing lives. Did you know that over the past 20 years the Indianapolis Marathon and its participants have directly contributed over $300,000 to benefit our partner charities? Today, we want to highlight our partner, KIDS Inc., a charitable organization that's been with us since the very beginning.

KIDS Inc. is an Indianapolis-based community organization that ministers to at-risk youth, many of whom have dealt with abuse, neglect, parental drug abuse and negative interactions with the law. The goal of this organization is to build lifelong relationships with the youth that involves taking care of their spiritual, emotional, mental, and physical needs.

This organization's emphasis on service has led them to supply invaluable volunteers at the race each year, from help setting up the course at the crack of dawn, to putting on the post-race meal. We couldn't do it without them! Find out more about KIDS Inc. HERE.

20 Reasons to do the 20th Annual Indianapolis Marathon & Half Marathon

Reason #2:
Big Race Feel, Small Race Charm!

Our event is 'medium sized' by design with approximately 3,000-4,000 participants each year. It fits the course, it fits the race environment, and it fits the type of race that we want to put on for the participants. We are not a mega-race, but we are not a small race either. The Indianapolis Marathon & Half Marathon offers an exciting race atmosphere from the pre-race anticipation at packet pickup and the expo, to the excitement at the start, to the wonderful atmosphere at the post-race meal where people stay for hours enjoying the music, the meal, and talking with family and friends about their race around the bonfires on the beautiful parade grounds of Lawton Loop.

Reason #1: A Spectacularly Beautiful Course During the Height of Autumn!
