

The Indianapolis Marathon has been chosen by Runner's World Magazine as a Top 10 Marathon to do for 2015!

RUNNER'S

More good news for you! The 20th Annual Indianapolis Marathon has been awarded the 2015 Road Runners Club of America (RRCA) Indiana Marathon State Championship Event designation. This is the 10th year in a row we have been awarded either the RRCA Marathon State Championship or Half Marathon State Championship designation!

All Indiana runners in the marathon will be competing for the title of 2015 RRCA Indiana State Marathon Champion in one of 8 divisions: Overall Male/Female, Masters (age 40+) Male/Female, Grand Masters (age 50+) Male/Female, and Senior Grand Masters (age 60+) Male/Female.

The RRCA Marathon State Championship is a 'race within a race' and does not affect the 2015 Indianapolis Marathon overall and age group awards which will be awarded as always. Additionally, Gatorade is a sponsor of the RRCA Championship Races program and will once again be providing gatorade on course for all participants in all of our events in 2015!

20 Reasons to do the 20th Annual Indianapolis Marathon & Half Marathon!

Reason #3:
Our Focus is on the Participants!

The 20th Annual Indianapolis Marathon and Half Marathon and 5K is put on by runners and walkers, for runners and walkers. Our focus is on the participants. Our goal is to exceed expectations - amaze them! This includes all aspects of the event from a smooth and efficient packet pickup, to a colorful and comfortable long sleeve tech shirt, nice medals for all finishers, a free post-race cookout, a great race atmosphere before, during, and after the event, and most importantly a beautiful, safe, and accurately measured course. We are purists in that matter because we want the participants to have a great experience with their actual race! We have a course second to none and an army of faithful volunteers that come back year after year to serve our participants.

Everyone has their own story for why they are doing their race and we will keep our focus on giving you an amazing experience as you realize your goals and dreams.

Reason #1: A Spectacularly Beautiful Course During the Height of Autumn!

Reason #2: Big Race Feel, Small Race Charm!
