

13th Annual Indianapolis Marathon & Half Marathon October 18, 2008

New location & expanded expo and packet pickup!

No need to overpay to run a marathon or half marathon!

The 13th Annual Indianapolis Marathon and Half Marathon is truly one of the best values in running. The event is able to keep a low price while still offering participants the amenities they have grown to expect and a few they haven't. "We have listened to our participants that are tired of paying exorbitant prices to participate in a marathon or half marathon. We believe in really taking care of our participants by putting on a great event while maintaining one of the lowest priced events in the country," says Race Director Joel Sauer.
